PREFACE.

Since the publication of the sixth edition of the Finding Lists, in 1884, the Library has issued three annual supplements and six bi-monthly bulletins, giving the titles of all accessions, to February 1, 1889. Owing to the rapid growth of the Library (which now numbers over 145,000 volumes) it has been deemed advisable, in preparing a new edition of the Finding List, to issue the same in parts. The first of these parts, containing a catalogue of English Prose Fiction and Juvenile Books, is now offered to our readers, and will be followed by class lists of History, Biography, Travels, Arts and Sciences, and other subjects. The bulletins, giving lists of new books added, will be issued as before.

In this catalogue of English Prose Fiction, books are entered under the name of the author, when known; under the pseudonym, when the real name is not to be ascertained; and also under the title of the book, followed by the name of the author, when known. Books especially adapted for young readers are designated by the letter "H" before the shelf-number. The titles of many books, in other departments of the Library suitable for the young, have also been included, as was done in former lists. Titles of worn-out books, which cannot be replaced, have been omitted from this catalogue.

In applying for books in the circulating department, it is best to write on a slip the numbers of several books wanted, and the attendant will give the first book on the list which is in, and return the list for future use.

Books marked with a star (*) do not circulate.

The Library has established delivery stations in various parts of the city, where books may be returned and exchange, free of charge.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE BY-LAWS.

The Library and Reading-Room are open on all secular days, other than legal holidays, from 9 o'clock A.M., to 10 o'clock P.M., except that the Circulating Department is closed at 8:30 P.M. On Sundays and holidays the Reading and Reference Rooms are open from 9 A.M., to 6 P.M.

Any resident of Chicago may draw books from the Library by giving satisfactory security, for which blank forms are furnished at the registry desk, and by registering his or her name. The same privileges are extended to persons residing outside of the city limits of Chicago, in Cook County, who shall pay the sum of three dollars per annum, or who are engaged in a permanent business, or pay city taxes, in Chicago, subject to the same regulations that apply to the actual residents of the city: provided, that the guarantor for such person be an actual resident of the city.

Each person entitled to draw books is supplied with a Library card, which must be presented whenever a book is taken, renewed, or returned; and if lost, will not be replaced until thirty days after notice of loss has been given.

The holder of a card is entitled to draw one book, if octavo or larger size; or two books of smaller size than octavo, they being the same work. Books may be retained two weeks, and may be once renewed for the same period.

A fine of three cents a day shall be paid on each work which is overdue, and no other book will be delivered on the card until the fine is paid.

Books of recent purchase, labeled "Seven-Day Book," can not be retained more than one week, and can not be renewed.

Encyclopædias, dictionaries, bound volumes of periodicals, and other works of reference, elaborately illustrated books, and such others as may be unsuited for general circulation, can be used only in the Library rooms.

Delinquents will be notified, through the mail, on the sixth day after the delinquency has occurred; and one week later, if the book is not returned, the guarantor will be notified.

Writing or marking in books is prohibited; and all injury to books beyond reasonable wear and all losses, shall be promptly adjusted to the satisfaction of the Librarian.
